

Greetings From Jenny!

I hope you enjoyed my adventure in Jenny's First Catch.

I need your help coloring in my portrait below. I feel so plain and I'm really quite beautiful! Roseate Spoonbills, like me, get their pink coloration from the foods they eat. Crustaceans like shrimp contain pigments called carotenoids that help turn my feathers pink.

Do you see something hiding in the picture that I might like to eat?

